Situating the Uyghurs Between China and Central Asia

Edited by Ildikó Bellér-Hann, Martin Luther University, Germany, M. Cristina Cesàro, Independent Scholar, Italy, Rachel Harris, University of London, UK and Joanne Smith Finley, Newcastle University, UK

'This splendid study of the Uyghurs, a Turkic ethnic group living mostly in western China and Central Asia, is distinguished from other studies by its holistic approach. It examines Uyghur experience not only through politics and history, but with emphasis also on cultural matters like music and food. This is a major contribution to our understanding of this important people.'

– Colin Mackerras, Griffith University, Australia

Drawing together distinguished international scholars, this volume offers a unique insight into the social and cultural hybridity of the Uyghurs. The work is comparative and interdisciplinary in focus and bridges a gap in our understanding of this group.
